She put together a playlist with specific songs to accompany each reading—no Elvis, but a few songs with Celtic and Middle Eastern themes.